

Erythraí Fest

Folk Dance & Culture Festival

16 – 20 May 2020

Çeşme / TURKEY

Who we are ? What is our goal ?

We started to organizing art & culture activities since 2006 and we have aimed to insist the feelings of sharing, friendship, love and respect into all people from all over the world on a common platform. In this context, we have been dedicated to make this topic happen by holding social and cultural events for 14 years.

Our organisation with its experienced staff search folk culture and tries to make our public and all the people around the world to enjoy and like the folk dancing.

We believe that the basic principle of World Peace and Friendship's being strong and permanent lays in bringing people together with various activities and letting them learn how to share.

We will always be intended to make the world's youth believe that they can make the world more beautiful by emphasizing the importance of sharing and also to insist the feelings of brotherhood, peace, love and respect into them so they can understand each other better.

We are honoured and glad to serve for the whole world's peace and friendship.

We would like to invite your group to our folk culture festival in Çesme TURKEY.

Place of Festival - ÇEŞME

Çesme is a seaside town on the Aegean coast, 85 kilometres west of Izmir. Çesme is popular with holidaymakers for its lovely beaches with their views over the Aegean to the Greek Island of Chios, its colourful houses that line the town centre, its top spas and a new marina that's attracting sailors from all over the world.

Çesme peninsula is home to around 40,000 people. During summer season the population swells to almost 500,000 as Cesme becomes Izmir's holiday backyard as well as foreign visitors mainly from northern Europe, who flock to the area.

Çesme is a lovely resort that where swimming is possible in the secluded bays as well as in the sea with crystal clear. It has long stretch of golden fine sandy beaches, small bays, coves and islands. Çesme can also be considered as the Aegean paradise. Çesme is the most important point for surfing. Its is also a major centre for yacht tourism and blue voyage. It has easy and well built connections to the nearby airport in Izmir, and on the road to Izmir.
